

Please stop Sinclair Broadcasting's attempt to undermine American journalism. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's decision is unfair to the public. If stations are forced to show one program against Kerry, they should be given direction to show another program from another perspective such as the documentary "Going Upriver".

We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
